

SILA Foundation Board of Directors

Elected Position Descriptions

The SILA Foundation is the charitable arm of SILA, Inc. It provides an education forum for the public, offers certification and designation courses, and grants scholarships to students pursuing careers in insurance, financial services, business, and risk management.

The SILA Foundation is governed by a Board of Trustees, elected from the SILA membership and/or the general public. Responsibilities include goal-setting, planning, policy development, resource development, corporate oversight, evaluation and decision making, including budget approval. The Foundation bylaws allow for up to 15 members of the Board. In addition to the elected members are the SILA Relations Trustee (Executive Vice President of SILA, Inc., a permanent voting officer) and the SILA Foundation Executive Director (an independent contractor, nonvoting member).

There are 8 Officer positions:

- President
- Compliance Trustee
- Education & Services Trustee
- SILA Relations Trustee (not an elected position)
- Development Trustee
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Immediate Past President

Other Trustee positions include:

- Communications & Public Relations Trustee
- Regulatory & Organizational Relations Trustee
- Scholarships & Grants Trustee

Trustees serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Trustees and the firms they represent are not personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the corporation. Trustees are expected to conform to the Foundation's ethics policies and must complete annual acknowledgements of the conflict of interest, anti-trust, ethics and whistleblower policies.

Trustees are expected to attend Board meetings, which include monthly 90-minute conference calls, a half day meeting in conjunction with the SILA Annual Conference, and another planning meeting held in the Spring. Trustees may be asked to serve on various committees for an additional time commitment.
