

SILA COURSE DESCRIPTION/OUTLINE: Business Essentials: Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Business Essentials: Diversity, Equity and Inclusion - This course will help students to develop an understanding of trends, issues, and best practices for responding to diversity issues in the workplace. Because workplace diversity is such a large and complex topic, it will be impossible to cover all aspects of this concept in this course. This is an overview course that will highlight several key issues with the goal of creating awareness for future analysis and response.

After completing this course, students should:

- have an understanding of various issues related to workplace diversity,
- be able to identify diversity-related issues, and
- know the first steps to take toward resolving those issues.
